INTERIM FLASH

We in no way want to cry wolf and/or cause any undue anxiety, but we are concerned that the European riot experience may be coming our way. Europe by and large has been a several centuries old welfare state (socialism); we have been at it only since the 1930s. Entitlements have become a right to millions of people whose votes have been purchased by politicians – some out of naiveté and some just down right evil. Today we live in a world that has run out of income. It is just as simple as that. The welfare state has hit the proverbial brick wall and some of us who have been fortunate enough to see it coming may well be the object of attack.

We are truly in what Neil Howe calls The Fourth Turning. Our future is in the balance. Safe havens are the only place to be until the dust settles. We shall do our very best to keep your money safe. You be sure to keep yourself safe.
